

NUMB. 3086

Since our last arrived the Mails from Holland, France and Flanders.

Petersburgh, January 7.

fore the Spring. The English Traders that are settled here, propose to give the Lord Tyrawley a most magnificent Reception; and, with this View, are preparing to go some Leagues out of Town in order to meet him. The Czarina's Journey to Moscow is like to be put off again; for, upon setting in of the cold Weather, his Imperial Highness the Prince of Russia is once more confin'd to his Apartment, and it is doubted whether he will be in a Condition to bear the Fatigues of so long a Journey.

Stockholm. January 10. His Royal Highness the Prince of Sweden has made an explicit Declaration, as to the Renunciation demanded from him of his Right on the Dutchy of Holstein. He says, That such a Renunciation, in Case he should make it, would be void in its Nature, as being plainly extorted against his Will; but that, considering his Quality as the eldest Prince, and Guardian of the Family, he can never bring himself to think of falling into such an Expedient; for, as the House of Holstein have hitherto sustained their Rank, while simply Princes of the Empire, it ought not to be expected, that, on their Accession to other Dignities, they should tamely give them up; an Act which would seem to speak them unworthy of their Fortunes. His Majesty, however, has caused it to be intimated to the Court of Denmark, that the Swedish Nation will never interfere in any Disputes about Holstein, but, on the contrary, will adhere religiously to the Treaty concluded at Fredericksbourg, on the 3d of July, 1720. under the Mediation of the King of France, and his late Britannick Majesty King George the First; whose Minister to the Court of Sweden, at that time, was Lord Carteret, at present Secretary of State.

Copenhagen, January 17. Baron Palmstierna, the Swedish Minister, had, on the 13th of this Month, his Audience of Leave of the King, Queen, and Royal Family; he proposes to set out for Stockholm To-morrow. As to Count Tessin, it is not known when he will have his Audience of Leave, but he conferred on the 13th, and again on the 14th, with the Ministers. M. Titley, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy to this Court, lately received a Courier from London, and immediately after had an Audience of the King; to whom he declared, that his Britannick Majesty was firmly resolved to execute precisely the Guaranty he had taken upon him by the Treaty of 1740.

Turin, January 9. On the first of this Month, being the Day after Admiral Marchew's Departure, a Grand Council was held here; at the Rising of which, a Courier was dispatched for London; who was charged, amongst other Things, with a Plan for the Operations of the next Campaign, in order to compel the Spaniards to evacuate Italy entirely; as also, with a Project for obtaining an Equivalent for the Queen of Hungary, in consideration of the Places yielded by her to his Sardinian Majesty. The Court has received Advice from Savoy, that precise Orders are arrived there from Madrid, requiring the Army to march, by the End of this Month, into Provence; leaving only as many Troops as are necessary to secure the principal Posts in that Duchy. It is likewise said, that the Spanish Army will be joined there by 14 Battalions, and 15 Squadrons from Catalonia; and that the Troops which are to be commanded by the Prince of Conti, have also had Orders to march into Provence; so that it seems to be now a Point out of Dispute, that this new Expedition of the Royal Infant, is intended against the County of Nice; for which reason, the Court has ordered four Battalions, with some Companies of Canoniers and Bombardiers, to reinforce Hamburg, January 24. It is written from Poland, that the Residents of the Starosty of Kryczew in Lithuania bordering upon the Territories of Russia, and belonging to the Count Siemiet, being no longer able to bear the Oppression, and different Impositions of the Jews, who form the Revenue of that District, had risen in a Body of 3000 Men, and making choice of one Woyczyllo for their Chief, had massacred all the Jews they could lay their Hands on in two several Towns, threatening to treat in the same Manner as many as they should find in the adjacent Parts; but that proper Measures had been taken for dispersing the said Rioters, and sending them to their respective Villages. By our last Letters from Sweden we hear, that the Empress of Russia has granted a Subsidy of 400,000 Rubles to Sweden, and it is said that a mutual Agreement to disarm immediately has been concluded between the Courts of Stockholm and Copenhagen.

Vienna, January 15. We have not, as yet, received the long expected Confirmation of the Spaniards having actually evacuated the Ecclesiastical State, in Order to retire into the Kingdom of Naples; but we are very confident that it cannot be long before it arrives, since Prince Lobkowitz has already received such Reinforcements, as will enable him to compel the Spaniards to quit their Inrenchments, in case they are not joined by the Neapolitan Troops; or to give them Battle, if they are. All the Military Officers received Orders Yesterday, to hold themselves ready to join their respective Corps on the first Notice. The Hungarian Troops have already begun to quit their Winter Quarters, in order to march to the several Posts assigned them, that they may be in a condition to act very early next Campaign. As yet, the Day is not fixed for the Departure of Prince Charles, and the Arch-Duchess his Spouse, but it is believed, they will leave this Capital before the End of next Month; and it is certain, that the Grand Duke, Co-Regent will accompany them as far as Prague. They write from Graz, that the Partizan La Croix, and some other French Prisoners were in that City, having created some Disturbances by their Quarrels with the Scholars of the University, were, by Orders from the Court, transferred into Croatia, to prevent any ill Consequences that might otherwise have happened.

Liege, January 24. On the 22d Count Virmond, the Imperial Commissary, open'd his Commission, and declared that the next Morning, at 10 o'Clock, the Chapter, according to their own Appointment, would proceed to the Election of a Bishop and Prince of this City. About Seven the same Evening, the Elector of Cologne arriv'd Here, under a general Discharge of all the Artillery on our Ramparts, in order to assist as a Canon at the ensuing Election. At Ten Yesterday Morning they began to Vote, and before the Clock struck Even, his Highness Prince Theodore of Bavaria was proclaimed Bishop and Prince of Liege with great Solemnity, having had 23 Votes in the Chapter against 17. The Elector of Cologne, his Brother, set out again for Bonn within four Hours after the Election. Our present Prince and Bishop, Brother to his Imperial Majesty, is allowed to be one of the most accomplished Princes in the Empire: He was born on the 3d of September, 1703. was elected Bishop of Ratisbon in 1719. and Bishop of Freydingen in 1723. The Inhabitants of this City testified the utmost Joy on his Election; and his Serene Highness, in his Speech he made to the Chapter immediately after, declared his settled Resolution to govern as gently as his Predecessors, and to support the Character of an Independent German Patriot.

Hague, January 28. Their High Mightinesses have prolonged the Placard, which regulates the Quarantine of all Ships coming from Messina, Calabria; and other Places suspected of Infection, for the Space of seven Months, namely, till August next. His Excellency the Lord Tyrswley set out last Sunday Morning for Amsterdam, on his Way to Petersburg. The same Day we had a suffocating Fog here, which was so excessively thick, that People were confined to their Houses for a great Part of the Day, the Town being as it were buried in a Cloud, and every thing invisible. Those who had ventured to Church in the Morning, before it came to that Height, could not find the Way home again, but were obliged to stay in Church till it dissipated. As there are but few Canals here, we had none of the Accidents which are but too common on the like Occasions in the other Cities, by Peoples running into the Water; and hitherto we don't hear of its having extended farther than this Place.

Extract from the Paris Almanac. Paris, Jan. 30.

* On the 25th of this Month the King caused to be registered, in the Chamber of Accounts, his Grant of the Duchy of Chateauroux to Madam de la Tourville, to be enjoyed by her and her Children to Perpetuity.

His Majesty has granted his Permission to M. Grassio, to incorporate into his Regiment, the Remains of the Independent Company of the late Col. de Bidache, and has likewise given Permission to some other Companies, to raise Independent Companies on the same Model.²

The Reader will perceive, that all this is with a View to establish French Corps, that may be as useful, and capable of going thro' as much Service, as the Hussars, Pandours, and Croats; so that the French are to be made by Art, a good Soldiers as the Queen of Hungary's Subjects are by Nature, which may be found a hard Task.

• The Departure of the Prince of Conti for the Army.
• is fixed for the Beginning of next Month.

There are actually arrived at Marseilles 46 large Vessels, which carry 16 or 20 Pieces of Cannon each, in order to serve for transporting the Troops into Italy. In Conjunction with 20 smaller Vessels, which are in Motion on the Coasts of France.

They write from Montpellier, of the 17th, that the Duke de Richlieu, and M. Le Nain, Intendant of that Province, have been lately at Port Cette, in order to give Directions for putting the Fortifications there into a State of Defence, and to prepare Barracks for the Militia that are to guard the Coasts; some Enemy's Ships having been seen hovering at a Distance, which has occasioned great Apprehensions.

‘ The same Letters add, that they had caused to be ‘ arrested at Nismes, ten of the most famous Protestant ‘ Preachers, who have revived their old Practices of ‘ Preaching, Praying, Baptizing, and Marrying in the ‘ Woods.

Extrad of a Letter from Toulon, January 10.

• Every Thing is ready for our putting to Sea : we
• wait only for the Brett Squadron, which is to join
• that in our Road, in order to go and attack Admiral
• Matthews, at the Island of Hieres.

M. de Court is to command the Right of the First Line with 10 Ships, M. de Gaberet, Commodore, will command the Left with 11; the Spaniards are to be in the Center. The Second Line will be commanded by Messieurs de Roquefeuille and de Camilly, who are also Commodores.

‘ Besides the 18 Vessels of the Line, that are actually
‘ at Brest, we expect also four large Merchantships from ‘ thence, and some others from Nantes, which are to ‘ serve as Transports.

* M. du Barail, whose Squadron has 4000 Fusils on board, and Victuals for six Months, will go first to Cadix, and from thence to the Havanna; in order to put the Island of Cuba out of danger of being insulted; and we are likewise assured, that four other Ships are already gone thither for the same Purpose.

'We learn from Frankfort, that the Emperor has 'caused to be published there, and throughout all the 'great Cities of the Empire, a general Pardon for all
'Deserters.'

Private Letters from Hamburg say, that two Posts from Petersburg are wanting, which occasioned much Speculation; the rather, because it was expected they would have brought the definitive Resolution of the Casaria, in reference to the Satisfaction she requires from the Court of Vienna, as to the Intrigues of the Marquis de Botta; which our last Letters assured us had been communicated to the Senate, and was speedily to be published in a Manifesto, address'd to all the Crown's Heads in Europe.

There happened an Affair lately at Madrid, which gave a good deal of Trouble; a Domestick belonging to the Venetian Ambassador had lent the Marquis de Piquinde a Sum of Money at Play; and having mentioned the Repayment of it to him in the Street, he gave him a Stroke over the Face, and withal abundance of ill Language; adding, that if his Master, the little Ambassador, had offer'd him such an Affront, he would treat him in the same manner. All the foreign Ministers having interested themselves in this Affair, the Court have pass'd Sentence upon the Marquis, by which he is condemned to Banishment for eight Years, and to pay a Fine of 2000 Ducats for the Use of the Army.

The Conde Montijo is set out from Paris, but, instead of going to Frankfort, is gone directly to Madrid.

His Catholic Majesty has published an Edit, by which he directs 30,000 new Militia to be levied by the First of April, in order to replace the Regular Troops, that are to march from Catalonia, and other Provinces.

There is a Manifesto, and a Declaration of War, in the Press at Paris; which, it is said, are to be published either before, or as soon as the Fleet at Toulon sails.

Whitehall, January 21. The King has been pleased to order a Conge d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, for electing Dr. John Thomas, Bishop Elect of St. Asaph, to be chosen Bishop of the said See of Lincoln.

The King has been pleased to order a Conge d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Asaph, to elect a Bishop of that See, notwithstanding the Election of Dr. John Thomas, now promoted by his Majesty to the See of Lincoln; and also to recommend Dr. Samuel Lisle to be elected Bishop of the said See of St. Asaph.

The King has been pleased to order a Conge d'Elire to the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, to elect Richard Trevor, Doctor of Laws, Bishop of the said See of St. Davids.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Edwin Sandys, Clerk, the Peace and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, void by the Death of the Reverend Josiah Sanby.

Mr. John Collins, a Woolcomber in Huntingdon, was robbed on the 14th Instant, by a single Highwayman, as he was returning from Cambridge, of 126*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.* for which he intends to sue the Hundred of Chatterton, in which he was robbed.

There is Advice to be depended on, from Amsterdam, under the 28th Instant, N. S. That Ships from Smyrna, coming with clean Bills of Health, perform no Quarantine, but are suffered to unload immediately.

The Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice Willes has appointed Mr. Richard Bunker, Sub-Treasurer of the Middle-Temple, to be Clerk of the Errors in the Court of Common-Pleas.

Last Friday Night the Right Hon. the Countess of Albemarle, who attended her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa to Hanover, arrived at her House in Grosvenor-Square. And Yesterday her Ladyship waited on his Majesty and the Princesses, and was graciously receiv'd. On Friday last died Mr. Holmes, Master of the Mermaid Inn, near the Church, at Hackney. He was a great Benefactor to the Poor.

From the London Gazette.

At the Court at St. James's, the Nineteenth Day of January, 1743. Present, the King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been most graciously pleased to deliver the custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, to the Right Hon. Richard Lord Edgumbe, the Oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was this Day, by his Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship.

resolved, that should no Sale can equal his, in the Beauty, Scarcity, or Excellency of the Books and Prints, none shall exceed it in the Reasonableness of the Prices.

General Post-Office, London, January 12, 1743.
WHEREAS the Post-boy carrying the North Mail
from Huntington to Stilton, was Yesterday the 11th Instant, about Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Standgate-Hole, by a single Highwayman, who presented a Pistol to the Post-boy's Breast, and carried off the following Bags; viz. Durham, Hull, Boston, Falsingham, Lincoln, Horncastle, Louth, Spalding, Stamford, Bourn, and Peterborough.
The Person who committed this Robbery is a luffy Man, and had on a large dark Frock over his Coat; his Face was covered with Black, and he rode on a dark Sorrel Horse, with a White Face, and made off for the Biggle-swade Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever shall Apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended, and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
